

Implementing Change in a Special Care Unit Environment

A Practical Guide to Transformation

Prepared By

Gwendolyn de Geest RN, BSN, MA

Living Dementia Consulting
Copyright © 2010

Tel: 778-772-7776

e-mail: gwendolyn@LivingDementia.com

website: www.LivingDementia.com

Contents

Introduction 1

Background 7

- History of Memory Care Manor Project
- Project Components
- Project Objectives
- Project Team

Creating a Feeling of Home 11

- What is Home?
- What is person-centered care?
- Obstacles to embracing person-centered care at Memory Care Manor
- Personhood maintained
- Navigating the way
- Practical examples of person-centered care at Memory Care Manor

Implementing Change 23

- Implementation Schedule
- Communication and Team Work
- Staff Satisfaction
- Dining Room
- Living Space
- Education
- Family

Sustainability and Accountability 41

- Promoting Sustainability
- Accountability Systems

The End Holds the Beginning 47

Appendix 51

- Useful Tools
- Strategic Plans
- Care Huddle Meetings
- Evaluations
- Bibliography
- Curriculum Vitae
- Case Study